FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
Felon in possession of Firearm and Ammunition in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1) as charged in Count 1 of the Indictment.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant, AURELIO PATINO, guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed on Count 1 of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: sixteen (16) months.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to section 5E1.2 (e) of the Guidelines, all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay a fine and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02;
2. The defendant shall not commit any violation of federal, state or local law or ordinance;
3. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer;
4. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and

5. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug and alcohol dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
6. The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge;
7. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
8. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform up to 100 hours of community service as directed by the Probation Officer;
9. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name; nor shall the defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than his true legal name without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer; and
10. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The Court recommends that the defendant be assessed for suitability for the Bureau of Prisons' 500-Hour Residential Drug Treatment Program. The Court also recommends to the Bureau of Prisons that this defendant be designated to a federal correctional facility in the Southern California area.

The Statement of Reasons shall be provided to the United States Probation Office, U. S. Sentencing Commission, and the Bureau of Prisons.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the Bureau of Prisons and the U. S. Sentencing Commission.

The Court informs the defendant of his right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
